2019 EMERGE: Empowering Methods for Effective Reentry, Growth and Engagement

Fall 2019 Class Begins: Tuesday, September 10th, 2019
11am - 3 pm

12 Weeks of Advocacy & Leadership Training for Women in Reentry

EMERGE is a New Hour 12-week leadership and advocacy training program for formerly incarcerated women!

- To apply, you must be a woman who is returning home from incarceration or a participant in an alternative-to-incarceration program.
- You will be given the tools you need to use your voice to make change happen and to speak out to change the ways in which women are impacted by prison and jail.
- Help create a criminal justice system that must treat women and all people with fairness, dignity and justice.

Participants are provided with bus passes to attend and upon completion are presented a monetary award and certificate.

To obtain an application please contact Danielle Donaphin, New Hour program director at: 631-273-3300, email her at: ddonaphin@newhourli.org, or visit <https://forms.gle/p3TxCFNgaJ4Kns1J9> to fill out an application.
